OLD TIMER OF THE WEEK

This week's honored "Old Timer" is HAROLD WETMORE. HAROLD started here on November 11, 1936 in Assembly followed by several transfers to almost every department. HAROLD has had two temporary assignments in Supervision, one in inspection and one in receiving. Then in 1965 HAROLD went to Quality Audit in D/66 where he has remained.

HAROLD served 11 months in the Army in the Overseas Occupational Forces. He was even in Nuremburg during the celebrated War Crimes trial.

HAROLD and his wife Vita have been married 37 years. Vi is employed at the K Mart, in the yard goods department. They have 2 sons and 1 daughter, Ralph who is maintenance supervisor at General Foods, Norman who once worked here at Roper's left and went to work for the railroad where he is a qualified fireman and engineer, and Patricia a housewife who lives in Kankakee. HAROLD and Vi have 6 grandchildren.

HAROLD'S hobbies are boating, fishing and gardening.

IT HAPPENS ON MONDAYS

"Bowling That Is"

by Harold Siefert

You could tell it was going to be one of those nites, right fellas. First the lights wouldn't work right, light fixtures overhead were loose and the alleys were simply terrible. We don't know if its anyones fault, but after all we have to bowl there, right? No one really likes to make excuses though, so perhaps I shouldn't. One thing is sure, nobody really tore the place up. Imagine a 523 being the high series and 212 the high game. Maybe they should have left the lights out after all.

We did manage to get through the nite and the high series of 523 belonged to ERNIE PERKINS and the high game of 212 to DON BLANCHETTE. Gee I wish I could make the scores come out better but I'd better tell the truth.

The MACHINE SHOP is still hanging on to that two point lead. They took the ASSEMBLY boys to the cleaners for three points with ED BAKER and JOE ARBOUR showing the way with 513 and 516 series. The OFFICE took three from the TRUCKERS to stay two behind the leading MACHINE SHOP, CUTTING-IN did the same to the TOOL ROOM, SUBURBANS did the same from the FORGERS, and the WELDERS got in the act and also took three from the STORES.

"GOOD" series and games were managed by BUD MENARD 509, MIKE LARSON 509, ERNIE PERKINS 523-201, TERRY ARSENEAU 507, AL GUENETTE 501, DAN LAFOND 507, GALE ALBERS 502, DON BLANCHETTE 212, JOE ARBOUR 516, ED BAKER 513, LEROY MATHEWS 519, and WILL ESSINGTON 505.

DAVE SHELL converted the 2-3-6-10, CLARENCE STUMP the 3-7-10, and BOB CRAWFORD and RAY MCNASH took care of the 5-8-10.
