"REMEMBER WHEN"

BOWLING NEWS

The David Bradley team entered in the City League and has won eight out of their nine games. Team members are PAUL FROMM, LEO RICHA, TONY STANISZEWSKI, BENNY SZEWERENKO, CLARENCE RODWEDDER, and ADA POTCHEBSKI. Why not come out and root for the boys on Tuesday nights?

Leo Nickerson of the Tool Room, left August 18 on his vacation to Riverview Park in Kankakee, Ill. He arrived August 25 about ten o'clock in the morning. After a little rest he started to pitch his tent for the week.

The next couple of days he explored the park and its surroundings and then took a day off to send cards out to his friends, the boys in the Tool Room. The boys received one of his cards for their clock.

It took Leo four days to return because of the traffic in Kankakee, but he was in time for work and told the boys all about his experience. The paper staff wishes to thank this fellow working man for the articles and hope that anyone who has a vacation story to tell will turn it into the Personnel Office.

We see LARRY POWER has bought bowling shoes. Wonder if Tage Welindt has anything to do with that? A bowling meeting was held after the games were played to decide what the players wanted. Mr. Zink said he would see what he could do to second what they asked for.

A big interest was taken in the league Friday night. Let's see if we can't keep it this way.

Leonard Dawkins, Frank Sovinski and Steve Gineris have an awful time keeping track of their bets. Clarence "Chalky" LaGrow was in perfect form with his hook working great. One of the leagues most popular bowlers who was missing from the line-up on Friday night was Denny Goodman and his "snake ball".

Do you have any idea as to the date of the above article? If you guess September, 1940 you are correct. The article appears in the Bradley Plantonic published monthly by the David Bradley Mfg. Works employees, at Bradley, Illinois. Circulation of 1000 copies by subscription price free for nothing. Foreign circulation Bourbonnais.

The Editorial Staff included Leonard Dawkins, Claude Barrone, Jerome Powers, Clarence Rodwedder, Joseph Giusti, Donald Smith, Rita Wambier, and Maxine Bouchard.

OLD TIMER OF THE WEEK

This week's honored employee, HENRY PIGGUSH, came to work at Bradley on October 14, 1941 after a short career in farming. During his entire career here, he has worked in Assembly, except for a short period on the Shell Line and Continental Motors Division. For several years he also played the tuba in EARL BE-TOURNE's orchestra.

During World War II HENRY, spent two years in the Army Quartermaster Corps, stationed in the eastern United States. He also found time to play in the Army Band.

In August 1941, HENRY married Yvonne Rivard (34 yrs. ago) and they have six children and one grandchild.

Since the last time HENRY was Old Timer of the week in the April 3, 1970 edition several changes have been made.

First of all, son James who was studying at Notre Dame is now teaching at Connicus College in Buffalo, New York and also studying law.

Richard who was a senior at Southern Illinois, has graduated and is working in Industrial Designing in the Kan-akee Area.

Joyce who was teaching in her first year at Manteno is now teaching in Champaign.

Lenora, has retired from working and is spending full time being a mother and housewife, (the one and only grandchild).

Gloria, who was a sophomore at Western Illinois University is presently teaching in the Bradley Grade School system.

And Dale, who was a junior at McNamara High is now a journeyman carpenter and works in the local area.

HENRY'S wife has spent 17 years teaching but has decided to just stay home and take care of HENRY.

You can tell by the progress of HENRY'S family why he has contributed so much to the Roper family. That's just the way he is.

HENRY'S hobbies are still gardening and traveling. When asked if he grew flowers too, HENRY replies, "If you can't eat them, I don't grow them".

"If you think you're going to walk out of here cured after only three sessions, you're crazy!"

A LITTLE KINDNESS GOES A LONG WAY

An indoor gardener whose eagerness exceeded his skill was continually disappointed by the sickly state of his ferns which, with the best intentions, he overfed, overwatered, and overcultivated. However, following his absence on a short vacation, he returned to find his fern trays full and vigorous. Puzzled, he sought the reason for the change from a more successful horticulturist. The knowledgeable grower, aware of his friend's tendency to kill plants with kindness, only replied, with a cryptic smile, "absence makes the frond grow heartier."
