DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1947, wish to dedicate our yearbook to the untiring efforts of the school board and the principal in procuring a new high school for the students of Bradley-Bourbonnais Community High School.

For several long years the school board has been trying to provide a new school. This year an election was held by the people of Bradley and Bourbonnais on the question of a new school and the vote was in favor of it.

Plans and blueprints have been made and drawn up and work on the new school is to begin as soon as material is available.

THE BRADLEYAN

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year 1943, fifty-five seamen set sail on their maiden voyage into high school. Our Captain, Herbert Gibson, with the assistance of the 1st Lieutenant, Lee Cross; 2nd Lieutenant, Peggy Kennedy ; Ensign, Veryle Burkhalter, sailed the ship out of port into smooth waters. Our first cruise was uneventful with the exception of a few parties. We sailed into port and left the ship for a temporary shore leave.

In the fall of 1944, we raised anchor and once again sailed out to sea. Our cruiser had the enrollment of fifty-one. Our Commanding Officers consisted of Captain Robert Bourelle, 1st Lieutenant Melvin Brouillette, 2nd Lieutenant Iola Lehnig, and Ensign Peggy Kennedy. The first few months we prepared to re-enter our routine work. It was uneventful and we sailed into homeport looking forward to another shore leave.

On returning to our ship we were met on deck by our Commanding Officers, Miss Allison and Mrs. Ford. Forty-nine seamen set to work to make our voyage a prosperous and eventful one. We welcomed a new captain, Bernard Rice. Other officers were 1st Lieutenant Neil Morse, 2nd Lieutenant Maxine Lambert, and Ensign Charles Tousignant. During the course of our voyage Mrs. Ford retired from active service and was replaced by Mr. Berquist. On this, our third voyage, we were to give a Prom, so we set about to raise funds. Our first step in that direction was to give a dance. Our first attempt was successful as was our second. We then centered our attentions on preparation for the Prom. The night of the Prom arrived with our hopes high. The Prom was a huge success and our musical theme went over with a bang. We then embarked on our homeward journey.

We entered into the fourth and final phase of our sea cruise with forty-four hands and a great determination to make it a huge success. Our Commanding Officers were Miss Allison and Mr. Walters. We were under the capable command of Captain Bill Mayotte. We chose as our secondary officers James Bass, Beverly Pattengale, and Robert Bourelle. Under their leadership we attained a high degree of companionship. We then set out to make preparations for our graduation. Our trip will soon be over and we will enter our chosen professions.

In future years we hope to get together for another cruise.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I stopped in Bradley on my way to Washington, D. C., for a special interview with Jack Miller, President of the United States, I happened to come upon a new structure with a sign reading "Royal Blue Store, Beck and Burkhalter, Props." I stopped in to see my old classmates and found they were doing quite well in their chosen profession. They told me that our old chum Beverly Pattengale was enjoying the bliss of married life in Wichert with her three fine children. They also told me that Barbara McClain was given the Peace Prize for her contribution to world peace, and is teaching at Olivet College in Bourbonnais.

I then bade farewell to Veryle and Dolores and continued on my journey. When I had gone about two blocks, I ran into the former Jerry Troutman, now Jerry Bass. I asked her what her husband was doing at the present. She informed me he was doing quite well as a chemist in the Bubble-Blub soap factory in Kankakee. We got to talking about our old classmates when she mentioned Dotty Rice, who is now Secretary of War in Washington. She has twin girls. Jerry says they are very sweet but she does not know who they take after. Dorothy's husband, Bernard Rice, owns a large industry, and is also a traveling salesman. He does well at it. I asked her what happened to her old friend Mary Kassman and she told me that she is doing quite well as the nurse to Dr. Robert Bouelle. Bob is planning to start a hospital of his own in Chicago. He must be doing all right for himself.

We decided to drop into the home of Bernard Tanner who is now the proud Mayor of Bradley. He was busy at the time, dictating to his secretary, Maxine Lambert, but when old friends visit they quickly lay down their work to chat with them. Mac is not only secretary to Mr. Tanner but also a fine little house wife to Bill. Bernard told us that Mildred Farmer owns a large part of the Bear Brand Hosiery Company and keeps quite busy managing it—doing very well, too. Her husband is helping her by taking care of the children. Albertine Amiot, Mac said, is also a house wife and living in Papineau. She has a small restaurant there. She and her husband have full control of it. SeDelle Jensen is quite the prosperous one also. She is now artist for "Terry and the Pirates," but always true to good old Bradley, has her residence here. Herbert Crosby is quite the Cosmopolite, he is engineer on the I. C. Railroad. He and his little family of ten are living very happily. In a couple more years, they will be Bradley's basketball team. Norma Burr is also among the list of the happily married people who remained in Bradley. She is the sole owner of the Bradley Root Beer stand. Roddy Curry who is now principal of Bradley High School, is doing quite well in handling the high school students. We were informed that Theresa Grill is also doing well for herself. She owns a little drug store of her own on the corner of Wabash and Broadway. An advertisement in her window reads, "If You Are Just Married, and Wife Knows Little About Cooking, Don't Worry, We Have Bromos." Joanne Legris is at St. Mary's hospital and is working hard as head nurse on the third floor. Keep up the good work Joanne, we may need your assistance some day.

We got into the Mayor's new helicopter and soared away. We sailed over the city of Kankakee and looking down, saw a large sign which read: "Bonnie's Beauty Salon." It is located where the old Volkmann building used to be. Bonnie runs a reliable business and all her customers call her Mrs. Topliff. Bernard Kohan has been living in Kankakee for several years with his wife. He owns the Frozen Foods Company. Jean Martell is another who ran out of Bradley. She runs the I. C. Drug Store. She and Theresa have quite a bit in common, so they always get together and discuss the different kinds of pills.

Seniors

As we landed in the Mayor's yard we came upon Herbert Gibson who is a foreman at David Bradley. In his spare time he runs a little garage of his own. They tell me that his wife is a good mechanic too. Clifford Osenga is also very prosperous. He is a well-to-do farmer in Herscher. He also took over Brown's Riding Academy. I said farewell to Mayor Tanner and all my friends and hopped a train bound for Chicago.

Upon arriving, I met, much to my surprise, Mrs. Richard Barrone, more familiar to you as Shirley Book. I hardly recognized her since it had been so long since I had seen her. I asked her all about herself and she, being born with a gift of gab, told me she was on a business trip for her governor husband. She likes married life but would prefer something other than being a governor's wife. She also told me that Lucille Gussman is helping her husband, who is head of the F. B. I.

We decided to travel around the big city to see what we could see. I had some postcards to mail, so we ventured into the post office, where we saw none other than Richard Hayes sitting down in a chair twice as big as he. He is Postmaster-general and was on a general checkup. We talked a while, then journeyed on.

We decided to visit the Planetarium. As we entered we were ushered to a seat and were told that Professor Glenn Hibbs was giving a very important speech on "The Planet Venus." It was quite interesting, but my vocabulary not being as expanded as his, I did not quite get, the point of his speech. All I got was the definition which was "The goddess of beauty, spring and love." It surely fit Glenn. After the speech I had an usher deliver a message to the Professor, congratulating him on his speech.

We had little time left so Shirley and I decided to go to the Walgreen Restaurant. As we were ordering, Shirley spotted out of the corner of her eye, Mary Ann Tompkins headed for us. She came over and told the waiter that the bill was on the house. She told us she was owner of the Walgreen chain stores. Mary Ann said that a lot of her old classmates came into her store. One of the most regular is Bill Ziegle, who has his home in Chicago, too. He is a tobacco auctioneer on WMAQ. I thought the voice sounded familiar. You can imagine what a time Mary Ann has when he comes in there. She also told us that Veronica Pechauer comes in regularly. She owns a large clothing store in Chicago. Mary Ann is one of her best customers. She said that Dallas Fees had been in one day last week. He is at the Oriental. Dallas is what Frank Sinatra used to be—a groaner. Beverly Crites came in at that moment and we hailed her to our table. She let us know that she was quite prosperous. She is manager of a big firm in Minneapolis and was in Chicago on business. Beverly says she sees a lot of Peggy Kennedy, now Mrs. Terrancy Kyrouac. She and her husband run a White Castle hamburger stand. They plan on starting a few more. We also learned that Beverly had got a letter from Tony Maisonneuve who is a commerce teacher at Yorkville High School. He had been in Chicago just recently on business also. Beverly says he and his little wife are doing well in the small town of Yorkville. Tony likes it very much.

The train was about ready to leave and so was I. So off I went bidding farewell to all my old classmates. I boarded the train and as I started to venture in quest of a seat I saw a familiar face. It was none other than Bill Mayotte. He was on his way to college where he is coach of the football and basketball team. He says he sure knows how to handle those boys and they are the best in the United States. Bill says Robert Longtin is teaching at the same college. He teaches Latin and all his students are said to be the best ever produced. We talked about how successful Donald Wilcox is as a U. S. Senator. At Hammond I said good-by to Bill and continued on to Washington.

I was met at the train by Mrs. Rice who had taken a day off to entertain me. She had information on the whereabouts of Shirley Powles, who owns a large theater in Washington and two in New York. One of the most played-up actresses in Washington is Ledy Hamarr, whose real name is Lorraine LaGessee. She ran Betty Grable right out of production. We're proud of the girl! Art Strickland is another New Yorker. He does nothing in particular. He owns a lot of land and is mostly just a New York playboy, and does he love it.

After my summing up you can just call me Hedda Hopper alias Iola Lehnig. The only difference between the two of us is, I don't like hats. Oh, by the way, I thought you might be interested that my latest mystery book, "Why Her Bathing Suit Never Got Wet," was published recently and I am now working on my autobiography, "Humanity's Greatest Shock."

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER-

- 2—Labor Day. Oh boy! School tomorrow.
- 3—School starts with 202 students. Here goes another year of education. Good stuff, and by the way, "Happy Birthday," Herbert Gibson.
- 4—It seems everyone is making a new acquaintance and admiring new friends.
- 5—Some people have a hard time getting up, lately. Could it be they spend too many evenings at the Bradley Skating Rink?
- 9—Second week of school. Lots of noise but its not all from work you can be sure.
- 10—Some of the Freshmen are still lost.
- 11—Why does time go so slow? I hope we get our seats in Study Hall pretty soon or all my books will be gone.
- 12—Typing students are getting into the swing of things. "Happy Birthday" to Norma Burr and Veronica Pechauer.
- 13—First football game. Hurray! We beat Crete 13-0.
- 16—One of the first real experiments in Chemistry. We prepared oxygen. Orders were to heat slowly. Bouelle's and Bass' blew up.
- 17—Mr. Walters said that some of the shorthand looks like plain chicken scratches.
- 18—First issue of Bradleyan started. Tony Maisonneuve, Editor, and Beverly Pattengale, Assistant Editor.
- 19—Cheerleaders were tried out in Study Hall today. Gym still under construction.
- 20—Cheerleaders elected. Shirley Powles, Albertine Amiot, and Jerry Kahan. We played St. Anne and got beat 19-6.
- 24—Jim Bass seems to be following that new Kankakee girl around. How do you like it, Jerry?
- 25—The initiation becomes some of those Freshmen girls. Especially the dolls and pig-tails.
- 26—Class officers elected and classes really are getting into the swing of things.
- 27—Today we played Lockport but we lost 37-0.
- 30—A month gone and we're finally getting adjusted to the school routine.

OCTOBER-

- 1—Well, lets all make use of the Library and fill our noodles with something beneficial.
- 3—Home Ec. Club had their first meeting. Rachel Timm was elected president.
- 4—We played Herscher there. I guess the odds are against us, we were beat 20-7.
- 7—Fire Prevention Week. Let's be careful with those matches.
- 8—Gee, that new senior, Dallas Fees, seems to make quite a hit on the football field. Nice going, Dallas.
- 9—Six-weeks tests today. Everybody is looking for the right answer. I hope they're not looking on someone else's paper.
- 10—Snake Dance last night. How are a certain 10 freshman who were initiated last night? Did you like your little trip out to the country? Played Reddick and we won 14-7. Yippee!
- 11—No school today. There was a meeting of the East Central Division of the I. E. A.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

The tenth annual Kankakee Valley Conference Music Festival was held in St. Anne, May 2, 1947, at the St. Anne High School Auditorium. H. E. Cook, secretary of the Vandercook School of Music, was guest conductor of the band and choruses.

The schools participating were Manteno, Momence, Grant Park, Peotone, Chebanse, Reddick, St. Anne, St. Pat's, Bradley, and Herscher.

The program started with four numbers by the mixed chorus namely: "Bless This House," "Cherubim Song," "Czecho" and "Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring." The girls' chorus sang the following: "May Day Carols," "When Children Play," "Beautiful Savior" and "My Heart Stood Still." The boys' chorus sang "John Peel," "Old Man Noah," "Desert Song," and "Like a Mighty Eagle." The selections, "Aurora," "The Bells of St. Mary's," "Meadowlands," "Hall of Fame" and "De Molay Commandery," were presented by the band.

The mixed chorus was composed of Ruth McClain, Phyllis Harrison, Dolores Falkenhan, Maxine Mayotte, Dolores Frisch, Ardis Dusenbury, Mary Lou Meents, Mary Kassman, Margery Kirchner, Peggy Kennedy, Dolores LaGesse, Isebellé Zasada, Norma Burr, Lucille Gussman, Shirley Book, Mary Ann Martell, Dolores Lancaster, Shirley Regnier, Maxine Lambert, Shirley Powles, Betty Bock, Sharon Smith, Armelia Castognia, Frances Sanor, Patsy Hasemeyer, Catherine Boudreau, Jerry Troutman, Dolores Largen, Marlene Stutz, Joyce Anderson, Dorothy Clary, Virginia Farmer, Iola Lehnig, Lorraine LaGesse, Albertine Amiot, Jean Martell, Darrell Hale, Robert Taylor, Bernard Rice, Bill Mayotte, Bill Terrell, Glen Hibbs, Jack Miller, Dallas Fees, Joe Wertz, Billy Ziegler, Jimmy Bass, Jack Thaden, Ray McGinnis, Herb Gibson, Tony Maisonneuve, Charles Stuck, Jerome Kohan, Marvin Gereaux, Russell Borg, Denny Rasmussen, John Wilkins, Charles Pierson, Art Strickland, Roddy Curry.

The boys' chorus was new this year, a feature added by Mrs. Hughes, the music director at Bradley High. They made their debut at a concert presented by the Music Department at the Bradley High School Auditorium, February 13. They were received by an appreciative audience.

CALENDAR

31—Hope everyone enjoys himself tonight. Let's not celebrate too much.

JANUARY -

1—Happy New Year.

2—Back to school. Oh well, did anyone make any new year's resolutions? I hope you can keep them.

3—Bad weather. Why couldn't vacation last longer? Snow balls are quite the problem these days.

6—Well, here's Monday again. Mr. Hughes got out his gun today in Chemistry and threatened to kill a few talkers.

7—Study Hall is a little quieter now. I can guess why too. Exams are just around the corner.

8—We welcome our new Science and Home Ec. teacher, Miss Voelker.

9—The seniors are wondering when their rings will come. Soon, I hope.

10—Hayride out at Courvilles. Phyllis, what happened to your eye?

11—Marmion beat us 42-31.

13—Jay Walters is now one year old. Is Mr. Walters still walking the floor?

14—Jimmie and Jerry are still going strong. Nice going, Jim!

15—Some people seem to be having trouble with their bookkeeping. We wonder how they balance their accounts?

16—Today we regret that we are so dumb—EXAMS! The truth will out. "Happy Birthday" Iola.

17—Second day of Exams. Played Watseka there and were overtaken by their five-42-34.

20—Bradley Home Ec Club had a visitor today and she informed the girls on the kinds of hair styles according to the shape of their faces.

21—Played Kankakee there and we were beaten 56-32.

22—Beverly Pattengale is now editor of the Bradleian. She is busy assembling the first one of the new semester.

23—"Happy Birthday Lorraine LaGesse!

24—Do you have your ride to the genie at Momence tonight?

25—"Happy Birthday" Bob Bourelle!

26—"Happy Birthday" Jack Miller!

27—Did you ever get a blue excuse for being absent? I know somebody that did. Say, that looks bad!

28—Gee, it's a good thing that Bill is tall. We sure appreciate his height in the game. Tonight, we played Gardner.

29—After the game it seems some of the boys appear to be a little worn out. Of course, the team is always in at early hours!

30—Today, we sent our material for the annual.

31—We see Lucille Gussman has stars in her eyes. Is it because we play St. Anne tonight?

FEBRUARY-

3—Here's another new month. Hope we get something accomplished.

4—Kankakee Valley Tournament starts today.

5—Mrs. Hughes is frantically preparing for the concert.

11—Another basketball game and our rival is Grant Park.

12—It's coming-

13—It's here—the long awaited high school concert. Oh, what harmony! Oh, what voices!

14—Valentine Day. Did anyone steal your heart?

15—Today, we take our long trip to Coal City. Loads of fun!

17—Well, another Monday. How does Miss Voelker like her first period study hall?

18—Another game! We play Chebanse.

20—Student Council has charge of Crow's Nest tonight—large attendance and loads of fun.

21—We play the Irish today. Don't miss it—it's supposed to be a good game.

24—Kankakee County Institute. Yippee! Another day off.

25—Well, another home game—Herscher.

27—How do you like Mr. Hughes' beautiful ties?

28—How's our big five coming along. We play Coal City there tonight—remember?

MARCH-

4—Regional Tournament starts! Everybody's all excited.

7—Regional Tournament ends. Everybody can't win all the time!

13—Sectional Tournament starts! Who will win?

14—Student Council gives an all school party. Games, dances, fun for everyone.

17—St. Patricks Day. "Happy Birthday" Shirley Book.

19—"Happy Birthday" Art Strickland.

20—State Tournament starts today. Oh, for the love of a couple tickets!

23—"Happy Birthday" Dolores Beck.

25—"Happy Birthday" Mary Ann Tompkins.

31—"Happy Birthday" Lucille Gussman.

APRIL-

1—April Fool! Aren't we goons? (Don't answer that!) "Happy Birthday" Beverly Crites.

4-7—Easter Vacation! Are we struttin' our stuff in our new Easter outfits?
