We, the Senior Class of 1948, wish to dedicate our yearbook to the Secretary of Bradley-Bourbonnais Community High School, Miss Doris Beach, whose patience and understanding has helped many of us through these last four years.

Miss Beach, a familiar figure to all of us, whether for misbehavior correction or good sound advice, has been with us for eleven years. We wish to express to her our gratitude and deepest thanks for "seeing us through."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September fifth of the year nineteen hundred and forty four, out of an enrollment of two hundred and four students, fifty eight green freshmen charged into the first of four eventful and fun-packed years of high school. Disregarding Louie's daily appearance on the office steps, and disturbances caused in science by Phyllis and Loretta, they made an impression of average goodness upon the teachers. Taking the call to arms in stride, they soon settled into pace, with the capable guidance of commanding officers Hughes and Stelter. To lead them in their advance, they chose General McCleary, Captain Jainnick, Lieutenant McGinnis, and Sergeant Hayes. Thus equipped they battled through their Freshman year.

On September fourth of the year nineteen hundred and forty five, out of an enrollment of two hundred and two, fifty one high stepping sophomores forged ahead. This seemed to be their year of quietness, for they were old enough to know their way around, and new enough not to be so bold and annoying. This year, the guiding hands on the check reins were those of Commanders Hughes and Stelter. This year, their advancement was lead by General McCleary, Captain Mayotte, Lieutenant Dionne, and Sergeant Owens. So commanded, they forged through their Sophomore year.

On September third of the year nineteen hundred and forty six, forty four juniors galloped back into high school, to complete the enrollment of two hundred and five. I say our troop galloped, because ahead was the full, fun-packed Junior year. This year, we were facing the problem of accumulating money for the prom. We sold pencils, pins, popcorn, candy, pop, hats, in fact, everything salable. One of our events was the Junior Dance, which added much to our growing funds. It was quite a success. Finally, the great day came, and all of us prepared for our Prom. It was held in the Gold Room of the Kankakee Hotel, with music provided by Betourne's orchestra. We chose Bill Terrell and Carol Wolven to reign as King and Queen of the prom. During this packed year, we had Mr. Hughes and Miss Stelter as Commanders, assisted by General McCleary, Captain Mayotte, Lieutenant Buttle, and Sergeant Burkhalter. We then passed on to become the mighty Seniors, just a little regretful of leaving our fun-packed Junior year.

On September second of the year nineteen hundred and forty seven, we pranced into high school to begin our final year, with only thirty eight left in our troop. We faced our year with Commanders Stelter and Fiene, and officers McCleary, Mayotte, Terrell, and Burkhalter. We went through the ordeal of having our Senior pictures taken, and the anxiety of waiting for our class rings to arrive. This year also saw the introduction or a lighted football field. And now, they were ready to graduate. Most of us, I am sure, hold more than a little regret in our hearts that these four wonderful years are over. There were heartaches and tears, and joys and fun-packed days—now we depart from the halls of Bradley High, realizing that we must be a credit to it. We will remember many little things—Mr. Hughes' Chemistry wonders, Miss Stelter holding forth Latin and Speech, Miss Allison and her arguments, our new teachers, Miss Beach raising her eyebrows at a late student, and Mr. Honn's "few short remarks." Yes, we are leaving this high school life, to go out into the world and make our way. On May 28, 1948, we reach the long strived for goal of High School Graduation. So we now bid farewell to this, our Alma Mater, and step out to take our places in the world. May we, the class of forty-eight, bid all farewell.

PROPHECY

It was while making the necessary arrangements for my famous "journey with a purpose" that I hit upon the unique idea of looking up all my former friends and cellmates. (Correction please, classmates.)

I threw the necessary equipment into my Girl Scout knapsack, rushed out of the famous Parisian hotel, "Jacque's Hash House," and boarded the first plane leaving within the hour, destination unknown.

Our first stop was a fabulous resort in Bern, Switzerland. A large crowd had gathered to greet the plane, so naturally, I had assumed the celebration was for me. Imagine my surprise when I found out that it was not for me but for a distinguished Olympic ice-skating champion from the United States. Just as soon as she flashed on those "ivories," I recognized her. I rushed over and fondly greeted my old pal and former classmate, MAXINE MAYOTTE. She cordially invited me up to her modest thirty-room apartment for a spot of tea. After a short chat (six hours) I decided I really must leave and was soon off to the Bern airport.

A plane going to England was just about ready to take off and so I decided to go there, since my journey was a world tour anyway. I found myself sitting across the aisle from three familiar faces; HARRY LARSON, foreign correspondent for a large English newspaper, GERALD BIAMONT, delegate to the U. N., and LLOYD COURVILLE, head fashion designer of women's hats from Peru. The plane finally landed and I found hunger was overcoming me at last. I timidly ventured into an elaborate Tea Shoppe in the swanky part of London. The proprietor, Madame Pompador, Jr., alias RITA SKUBE, warmly welcomed me and wished me a "Bon Voyage."

Since the Orient was my next change, I decided to collect a few trinkets while there. Perfume appealed to me most and so I settled upon that. I had formerly heard of an outstanding brand being sold by a Missy HARRISON. Being suspicious, I traveled to the plant. It was true; it was PHYLLIS and the name of the perfume was "Nem Ha" spelled backwards, "Ah Men." She was making plenty of money at it, too. LAURA PELTIER was quite the girl over there, doing her slinky Oriental dances as a pastime. Her dancing partner, RAY McGINNIS, is an Admiral in the American Navy stationed at Hong Kong.

PROPHECY

I was again on my way, this time in the direction of dear old Bradley. The town had been rebuilt, thanks to the ingenious ability of its mayor, GERALD SLOVIKOSKI. LORETTA RAINES has constructed her own secretarial school where the former Bradley High School was located. Mrs. Bernard Kohan, DOROTHY NORMANDIN, was happily married and quite proud of their unique home which she designed herself. (Confidentially, these were no walls!) BETTY CLARY also had prospered in the line of secretarial work. She was employed as head Secretary of the new Everbright False Teeth Factory. Their motto was, "Are you lonely and homely and can't pronounce s's? Buy a pair of Aluminous False Teeth. Besides glowing in the dark, they guarantee you won't be lonely anymore!" I borrowed Betty's helicopter and soared to Kankakee, the suburb of Bradley. Quite by accident, I crashed into another helicopter owned by ANDY WILKENS. Andy was happily married to a sweet, young thing from Kankakee. Who said these high school romances don't work out? I soon missed the familiar face of LOUIS JAMNICK and inquired at various places about him. I was speechless to learn he had deserted Bradley and his former friends for the gay life of a wealthy playboy in Rio de Janeiro. The latest word had it that he has been seen with the Coffee Heiress quite frequently. I thought you didn't like coffee, Louie? EDNA LEHNIG was operating a large chain of bakeries throughout the U. S. and Canada. I caught a train to Chicago and arrived there in about five minutes. This was made possible by JEANNE FULLER'S scientific invention which discovered a new type of train engine.

In Chicago I heard a new song written by the famous song writer, TALIVIADGE RANDALL. It was a catchy, little ditty entitled, "Too Skinny Polka." RUBY LAGESSE was a famous Powers model and the former "Miss Altorf."

The last lap of my journey then took me to sunny California. This was where the spacious home of movie star BERNARD LAMONTAGNE was located. He was then producer, director and star of the new movie, "Who Put the Overalls in Mrs. Murphy's Chowder?" BILL TERRELL, the millionaire, was also residing in an extravagant mansion near Hollywood. It seems he had just manufactured a new style, all glass automobile with only two wheels. He was also quite the rage with all of Hollywood's "old maids." His latest flame was Cass Daley.

PROPHECY

The great football player, MARSHALL DUSENBURY, had turned professional and was playing on his newly organized team which included Johnny Lujack, Glenn Davis, Superman and others. ANNE DIONNE, the talented young virtuoso, was taking a much needed rest in California's sunny clime. She was resting up for her world wide concert tour in the spring. Such famous personalities as Jose Iturbi, Yehudi Menuhin and Rise Stevens were also visiting her while I was there.

About myself? Well I am professional artist with my main studio in Paris, France, although I live in China most of the time. (They're not so particular about who lives there!) That journey I have just completed is of great interest to you, I suppose, so I won't keep you in suspense any longer. You can read all about it in the latest issue of the "Hobo News."

Thus ends another chapter in the book of High School days. Let's hope next year's class turns out as well. (Ahem!)

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1948, of Bradley-Bourbonnais Community High School, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby will and bequeath in this our last will and testament, the following:

I, GERALD BIAMONT, my build to Lester Shreffler and Marjorie Peltier.

CALENDAR

OCTOBER-

- 1—We are really back in step now. A whole month of school is gone already, and we hardly noticed it!
- 2—Mr. Butkovich deals out those ninth hour slips like an old hand.
- 3—A big day . . . an assembly, class meetings, our first issue of the Bradleyan, and our great eleven defeated the Herscherites, 32-0.
- 5—Tonight we all met Mrs. Butkovich at the "Sombrero" and we think she's really nice.
- 6—Another U. S. History test today! Coach, where do you get all of them?
- 7—We are reviving square dancing, by practicing at the "Sombrero." Happy birthday, Mary Lou Dyer.
- 8—A fire drill, today . . . U. S. History didn't even know it!!! Studious little group, aren't we?
- 9—Reddick Bulldogs defeated us 13-12 today. What a battle!
- 10—Hooray, a free day to loaf around in . . . thank you, teachers' meeting.
- 13—Happy birthday, Ruby Lagesse. Report cards are coming out soon, is everyone worried?
- 14—Happy birthday, Anne Dionne. The Frosh-Soph team defeated the Reddick Frosh-Sophs, today.
- 15—Snake Dance tonight . . . it was a big success . . . lipstick, tape, rides, and all. Say, did you go to the woods, too?
- 16—St. Pats defeated us tonight, on our lighted field. But the team put up a good fight.
- 17—Everyone be sure to get a membership card to the "Sombrero."
- 18—The football team took a trip to the U. of I. to see the Illinois vs. Minnesota game. They had a good time on the way down, too, on the school bus. What about that old Ford, boys? Wish you had a horn like that too?
- 20—Atomic energy is the reason for those puzzled looks on the faces of the Chem students. Happy birthday, Norman Regnier,
- 21—The Senior boys were entertained by Army recruiters today . . . well boys, will you be Army or civilian?
- 22—Another fire drill today, but this time everyone participated in it.
- 23—The typists are busy on the second issue of the Bradleyan today, trying to decipher some of the articles.
- 24—Class meetings and a pep assembly today. Tonight we defeated Momence, 19-12. We lost another valuable player too, as Jack Thaden hurt his foot and ankle.
- 25—Mr. Butkovich, how was the midnight show? Like it?
- 27—Seems like all the teachers chose today as a test day. Is this a conspiracy.
- 28—G. A. A. Halloween party tonight . . see all the ghosts?

DISTRICT SPEECH CONTEST

Bradley High School entered six contestants in the Illinois High School Speech Contest this year. It was held at Calumet City High School, on February 28, 1948. The district contest is the beginning step, on the way to the state.

The contestants and their material were: Darel Hale, Oratorical Declamation entitled "Without A Song;" Phyllis Harrison, Serious or Dramatic Reading entitled "Mary, Queen of Scotland;" Marjory Kirchner, Original Oration entitled "Wanted—An American Home;" Sharon Smith, verse speaking; Charlene Hasemeyer, Humorous Reading entitled "Sugar and Spice;" and Dolores Ingle, Extempore Speaking.

We arrived at Calumet City at nine o'clock on the morning of February 28. There was a general assembly in one of the large rooms of the school at 9:15, where they explained the rules of the contest and informed us as to where our own events were to be held. Immediately following the assembly, each of us proceeded to our division and "did our stuff." Apparently we did all right, for when we returned to the assembly room at 11:30, where the winners were announced and the awards given, we found that four of Bradley contestants had won medals. They were, Darel Hale, first place; Phyllis Harrison, second place; Marjory Kirchner, second place; and Sharon Smith, second place. These four will now proceed to the Sectional contest to be held at Dwight, Illinois, on March 13, where they will compete for the chance to go to State.

Bradley collected second most points, with Hyde Park taking first place with 21 points, and Bradley, second, with 18. Bradley competed against such schools as Morgan Park Military, Argo, Blue Island, Thornton-Fractional, Hyde Park, and other larger schools. You can easily see that there was plenty of rough competition!!

The contestants offer their thanks to Miss Stelter, their coach and sponsor. Her untiring efforts were what spurred us on to win, and her effective coaching gave us the touch needed to win over our other competitors . . . Thank you Miss Stelter!

FOOTBALL FIELD DEDICATION

On the evening of September nineteenth, a large crowd gathered at Bradley High School's football field to witness something entirely new at Bradley. Lined on either side of the field were five tall poles, each topped by four individual Benjamin football floodlights.

Before that inaugural game with St. Anne, talks were given by Mr. Hall, county superintendent of schools and former Bradleyan, Mr. Honn, our principal, and football coach, Bill Butkovich. As "The Star Spangled Banner" was being played our cheerleaders, Sharon Smith, Jackie Gustin, and Jerry Kohan raised the flag on our new flagpole at the north end of the field. For another first, the game was broadcast on Kankakee's new radio station WKIL.

Yes, night football has come to Bradley, to be welcomed by enthusiastic Bradleyans coming out to see their team perform. Because of the lights, many fans, who previously had to work while the team was playing or had to rush over from work to see the game, now can come at their leisure. Not only do we have new lights but also newly installed bleachers, which were kindly donated by Kroehlers and put in good condition by Mr. Jepsen for the comfort of the spectators. Now that we have these improvements, lets show those responsible for bringing them to us that we appreciate them by coming to all the games and backing our team to the limit.

LETTERMEN CLUB

The newly organized Lettermen Club of B. H. S. has many plans and is looking forward to a prospective club in the near future due to the renewed interest of its members. This club is open exclusively to owners of a major "B" letter earned sometime during their high school years in the various sports of football, basketball, track, and baseball.

Coaches Joe Jepsen and Bill Butkovich are the club's able co-sponsors. Officers are as follows: President, Bill Terrell; Vice-President, Andy Wilkens; Secretary and Treasurer, Louie Jamnick. The club is busily preparing a Constitution which will soon be put into effect. Certain by-laws in the Constitution will prohibit non-members of the club from wearing major letters they didn't earn. This will do away with many outside students flashing off "B's", the meaning of which they do not really understand, for when a person has to earn something they are more willing to appreciate it. Another law put into effect is the one that automatically make Vice-President, Joe Metschuliet, President next year. When electing officers, the members decided to vote for two vice-presidents thus avoiding the confusion that generally comes at the beginning of each new school year.

Members consist of the following:

Seniors—Gerald Slovikoski, William Terrell, Andy Wilkins, James Larkins, Charles Stuck, David Erickson, Paul Rittmanic, Louis Jamnick, Marshall Dusenbury, Floyd Windal, Bernard LaMontagne, and Paul McCleary.

Juniors—Pete Geraci, Glenn Ziegle, Albert Grill, Vincent Potrzebski, Richard Martin, Joe Metschuleit, Jim Hunter, Louis Rapp, and Denny Rasmussen.

Sophomores—Richard Lehnig, Leonard Vaughn, John Wilkins, Jack Thaden, Gerald Decker, Charles Pierson, John Leszczewicz, Francis Pechauer, Edward Hayes, Marvin Gereaux, and Joe Wertz.

Frosh.—Donald Dionne.

Congratulations to the Lettermen Club. May it continue to grow and increase in membership, building a more efficient, athletic and broadminded group of young men.

G. A. A.

The Girls Athletic Association, better known as the G. A. A. has been actively engaged in many of the various highlights at Bradley High School this year. The club is under the capable direction of Miss Elizabeth Fiene aided by the following officers: President, Delores Frisch; Vice-President, Doloras Falkenhan; Secretary, Mary Lou Meents; Treasurer, Sharon Smith.

During the fall months the gym was used for volley-ball practice by the girls and then later on, a tournament was held. In October, three representatives from Bradley, Sharon Smith, Doloras Falkenhan, and Delores Frisch accompanied by Miss Fiene, were invited to the Workshop held at Oak Park School. There they were given instructions in archery, folk dancing, and had discussions about various sports with girls from other schools. As the year progressed, basketball became the reigning sport, so the girls practiced diligently every week. In February the future basketeers were divided into teams and another tournament took place in the gym. Of course, a softball team was organized when the weather permitted. Many exciting games were conducted out on the field.

We must not leave out the social events of the club, such as the fun witnessed at a fall wiener roast in the nearby woods after a few miles hiking in the crisp air, and the Christmas caroling in frosty December after which hot cocoa and cookies were enjoyed by everyone. February, Friday the thirteenth, found the boy's "B" Club as guests of the G. A. A. in a co-recreational evening and various games were played, including relays, volley-ball and other such events in which the girls proved themselves to be fairly good competition for the boys.

Here's wishing future progress to the club that promotes the growth of healthy bodies and healthy minds.

We, the girls of G. A. A. wish to express our appreciation to our sponsor, Miss Fiene, for the effort she has put forth in making our club a success.

Baby Picture Comment

1. "Always loafing, aren't you Andy ?"
2. "Aw'w don't be so bashful Charles, we know you."
3. Anne went in for cheesecake at an early age.
4. "Oh, Bernard, I love that white stocking cap."
5. "Rip certainly looks proud of his little wagon, doesn't he?"
6. "I'll bet Edna just got a whipping."
7. Jack looks just like a little man with that bow tie.
8. "Doesn't Rita look shy, though?"
9. There's Maxine H. with a sober look.
10. Bill sure looks proud of his "means of transportation."
11. "Wasn't Betty a cute little tike, tho?"
12. "I like those shoes, Dolores."
13. "Hey, Paul! I'll bet you never dreamed this would be in here, did you?"
14. "Harry must have swallowed some feathers."
15. "What's the matter Ruby, old rocking chair got you?"
16. Doesn't Myrna look comfortable ?
17. Hasn't Phyllis got an innocent look?
18. Jimmy and his dog or Jimmy on his dog?
19. "I'll bet that Kiddie-Car was fun, wasn't it Loretta ?"
20. "Solvie, you'll catch your death of cold on that grass."
21. "Say Carol, are you standing crooked or is it just your legs?"
22. "Whatcha doin' Marshall, catching bugs?"
23. All Jeanne needs is a halo to complete the effect.
